

ALWAYS ON THE SQUARE!

WILLIAMSBURG

1857 ♦ SESQUICENTENNIAL ♦ 2007

Family history workshop June 24

A workshop to assist Williamsburg residents with family history writing will be held Saturday, June 24, from 9 to 11 a.m., in the small meeting room, upstairs at the Williamsburg Recreation Center.

Williamsburg Sesquicentennial History Book committee members will be on hand to pass out examples of family histories, tips and advice, answer questions and concerns and assist with the family histories that will be submitted for the history book.

Participants should bring their work and any photos they are considering submitting.

Completed family histories and the $50 fee can also be handed in at this workshop. Deadline for submitting histories for the book is Aug. 1.

There is no fee for the workshop, but reservations are appreciated.

To reserve your spot at the workshop, call Callie at 668-1240, Netha at 668- 2401 or Bev at 668-1254.